Discuss 2018/2019 Priorities

Kathy Schlieve, City Administrator:

- Bike trail update – question on completion date to schools and Wild Goose Trail
- Plan and action need to be taken and budget
- New plan and DOC connection to get trail complete
- Break up in phases on what we want to submit for money
- No budget monies for updates of current senior building, unknown at this point where Christian Home and Agnesian are at now for possible new senior center

Jeff Daane – McCune Update:

- McCune play equipment to replace what was taken down, putting on agenda for next month
- Prioritize plans for McCune to accomplish goals in a timeframe
- Baseball diamond to be completed this week

Recreation Update – Rachel Kaminski, YMCA

- Lunch with Mayor today went over very well, she gave new updates
- Timber Rattler game had full bus load, awesome time
- Lunch with new Chief of Police, held question and answer period
- July casino trip, filled bus but no winners, next time will be Oct.
- New potluck picnic held at Harris Mill Park, will repeat next year
- New t-shirts for Senior Center members went over big
- August items:

- SIA sponsoring bingo and another sponsor came on – Lutheran Home from Fond du Lac so bingo will now be twice/month
- Bus trip to comedy show, reservations full
- Boomer, the new police dog, met everyone, did tricks, went over importance of his abilities
- Foot care will be discontinued at the Senior Center
- September items:
 - YMCA membership – sign up if health insurance will cover it
 - Let's Talk About Medicines presentation – Senior Center gets kickback on their referrals to use for the center
 - Agnesian comes in to do health care needs, new topic is “Good Healthy Food Prep” to make it easy on them
 - Free Marsh Haven tour, senior's sign up, tour/meal/transportation for $5
- Average daily pool attendance – 46
- Wii numbers down, players on golf course
- Yoga numbers up and filling room
- Pickle ball – enough players to fill 4 courts and still growing
- Park program:
 - Attendance down from last year
 - Come up with better communication to get more involved
 - Fishing tournament and bike rodeo big with kids, good prizes

Pool Update – Jacob Van Den Berg, YMCA

- Labor Day ends pool season
- Budget contract was every 2 years, will now be 1 year
- 2 drills done at pool, both went well, drowning and neck injury, EMS and hospital involved
- Swim lessons are always full, turning others away
- Request for adult swim classes to be held
- Water aerobics went well right up to the end of schedule
- Water belts are a need for deep water exercises, WARP working on, belts run $35 each
- Need to get more advertisement on events
- Need more lounge chairs, working on second diving board
- Pool inspection passed with flying colors, inspector very impressed

Vossekuil requested we get the signage for Pine Street Park done and up.

Next Meeting: Monday, September 25, 2017 at 6:00PM

Motion Harmsen, second by Uecker to call the meeting adjourned. Motion carried.

Submitted by Bobbie Vossekuil.
